

Celebrating YOU! Campaign: Q&A

The Celebrating YOU! Campaign is an effort to highlight the small businesses and start-ups that utilize the resources of the Small Business Accelerator. It will take place through the month of October 2015 – Small Business Month in Canada – and will periodically highlight a business on the SBA blog. It is a chance for small business owners to share information about their new business venture, and a space for them to contribute first-hand experience on the process of starting a business.
